Notice of amendment to REIS Insurance Policy Cover.

C&A Motor Club officials and the Organising Team have been in communication with Motorsport UK and REIS following a recent change in the level of competitor cover being offered to competitors on Road Rallies.

Currently REIS is the only insurer in the market to offer a form of Individual Road Rally Cover. REIS offers an Individual Competition Car Policy (underwritten by First Underwriting). This policy covers the driver against third party liability on the insured events (including Road Rallies). It is intended for genuine claims where damage to a third-party vehicle and/or where injury to occupants of a third-party vehicle, following a collision, are caused. It is not intended to cover damage to fencing and/or road furniture caused by loss of control by a driver on a timed section of a road rally.

In simple terms, a REIS individual Insurance policy will not pay for damage to walls and fences.

In view of this situation, the C&A Motor Club wish to inform competitors that it is their responsibility to pay for any damage to walls and fences on this event. May we also remind all competitors that it is a legal requirement to stop at the scene of any accident/damage to third party property, and not continue to compete on the event. A damaged declaration will need to be completed and handed in to a member of the Organising Team, clearly noting the map reference of the accident/damage.

The Insurer would prefer the policyholder to have a complete annual policy for their comp car that includes the third-party RTA cover for motorsport events, rather than accommodate a one-off liability (for a minimal premium) that the drivers own insurer won't cover.

The Organising Team and Motorsport UK acknowledge the challenges that this brings to Road Rally events. However, we feel it appropriate to give competitors prior notice which will allow them to consider applying for an annual policy or be fully aware of their liability if they chose to rely on an Individual Competition Car Policy.

Any competitor taking on an annual policy in their own name will be entitled to a refund of insurance paid for this event.

Thank you.
